Cyprus Branch

Module 2 Course
The Laws of Arbitration

Commencement Date: 12 February 2017

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb) is one of the world's leading centres of excellence for the development of arbitration, mediation and other forms of dispute resolution at all levels.

The Institute was founded in 1915 and now has over 13.000 members in more than 100 countries. The CI Arb is a not-for-profit charity which works in the public interest through its international network of more than 30 Branches and Chapters.

The Cyprus Branch is an approved provider of the Institute's Courses. The diversity of cultures and practices across the continent and other countries around Cyprus enables the Branch to bring together a unique mixture of dispute resolution methods, practices and experiences.

The Cyprus Branch is launching its Module 2 Course in International Commercial Arbitration, Law of Arbitration, which is the second to be taken step in the Institute's "Pathways to Fellowship" Programme.

On successful completion of the Module 2 Course, will enable participants to apply for Full Membership of the Institute and then continue to follow its "Pathways to Fellowship" programme which ultimately leads to Fellowship of the Institute.

No other organization in the dispute resolution business can offer this prestigious accolade.

Course Details

Module 2 course in International Commercial Arbitration will address the matter of the Law of Arbitration.

This course will provide a detailed knowledge and appreciation of the differences in the law of international arbitration as applied to a number of different common and civil law jurisdictions, particularly those in England, France and China. The course includes the UNCITRAL Model Law on international commercial arbitration, and the use of international and institutional rules and administrative services.

The course will address those matters that may be arbitrated and the nature of international arbitral appointments. We shall consider the relevance of the courts to international arbitration as well as the requirements of an enforceable international award.

This Module 2 is carried out over a period of six months with self-study with three face-to-face tutorial sessions held during this period. The course finishes with a three hour written examination.

The course date of 25 February 2017 is the start of the course when candidates will be required to start their private study of reading and not when attendance at tutorials is required.

The face-to-face tutorials will be held in Cyprus on Thursday 09 March 2017, Wednesday 26 April 2017 and Tuesday 13 June 2017.

The Module 2 Course is based upon a course workbook, and participants are expected to read and study specified parts of the workbook, with revision and practice questions. A specific assignment will be issued to all participants in the latter part of the course and the results of the assignment will count for 20% of the overall course marking.

A final written examination will account for 80% of the overall marks for the course. The course will start on 12 February 2017 when the initial Course Papers will be issued.
